The following instructions apply solely to the HP 11 Notebook PC. *

Enabling Battery Safety Mode

- 1. When the BIOS installation completes, follow the instructions to restart your computer.
- 2. When the HP logo appears, press F10 to enter BIOS Setup.
- 3. Select 'System Configuration' tab using Right Arrow key. Look for the item "Battery Safety Mode" and change the setting to "Enabled" using F5/F6 key.

nguage	<english></english>
rtualization Technology	<disabled></disabled>
N Power Saving	<enabled></enabled>
ard Reader / 1394 Power Saving	<enabled></enabled> an Always On	<enabled></enabled> ction Keys Hode	<enabled></enabled> ntel Smart Connect Technology	<enabled></enabled>
ntel Rapid Start Technology	<enabled></enabled>
SB3.0 Configuration in Pre-OS	<enabled></enabled>
ISB Charging	<enabled></enabled>
lattery Safety Hode	<d i="" led="" sab=""></d>
Boot Options
	Disabled Enabled Enabled

- 4. Go to "Exit" Tab by Right Arrow Key and choose "Exit Saving Changes". Press the Enter key and Select "Yes" in the dialog.
- 5. After system restart, the BIOS displays the following Message. Select "Accept".

use your notebook PC, please ACCEPT	the Battery Safety Mode. Battery Safety Mode will discharge your battery and disable	future charging so you can continue to safely use your notebook PC using your HP Pow	er adapter. Once your internal battery is replaced by a service technician, the batter	ry can resume typical operation.
Certain HP Battery Diagnostics may n	not be able to provide reliable results while the notebook PC is in Battery Safety Mon	de. This is expected behavior.
Please visit the HP Recall website a and to order your replacement batter *If you DECLINE the Battery Safety N overheat posing a fire or burn hazar Mode is accepted.	at: www.hp.com/go/batteryprogram2017 to learn more ery. Mode, your battery will continue to be at risk to rd until it is replaced, or until Battery Safety
[ACCEPT]	[DECLINE]

- 6. After you restart your computer again, the battery will be put into Safety Mode.
- 7. You will be required to use your HP Power Adapter after accepting Battery Safety Mode.

Disabling Battery Safety Mode

- 1. After the battery is replaced, turn on or restart the computer. When the HP logo appears, press F10 to enter BIOS Setup.
- 2. Select "System Configuration" tab using Right Arrow key. Look for the item "Battery Safety Mode" and change the setting to "Disabled" using F5/F6 key.
- 3. Go to "Exit" Tab by Right Arrow key and choose "Exit Saving Changes", press Enter key, and Select "Yes" in the dialog.
- 4. After you restart your computer again, Battery Safety Mode will be disabled and normal battery activity will resume.